BEAMIAN SYSTEM- Digital You

Beamian is a digital system which takes advantage of the digital identification of visitors in order to perform a variety of functions. There are different versions of Beamian for different types of events (trade shows, conferences, wine tasting, sporting events, music festivals and job fairs). In the case of the Job Fair edition, the available functions are:

- Always that the visitor pass your card by the reader of each stand (the university card itself in case of be students of the University of Vigo) is recorded information previously ascent by the candidates to the platform of log.
- This system allows direct access to the cvs of the candidates by the company or its LinkedIn profile
- The companies will receive the information at the end of the event. Also, the visitors will receive information about their activity in the fair (companies visited) at the end of the event.
- Statistics available at the end of the fair.

How does it work?

The candidates are identified through a smart card provided by the organization or by associating the system to their student card. Employers can be identified through a electronic point. This makes it possible that with a simple click, the CV or the LinkedIn profile of each candidate is at the disposal of the employer for immediate consultation, classification and definition of next steps.

The contacts can be exchanged and shared between both parts electronically.

Candidates will have access to a log of the representatives they spoke to, and, whenever they want, they may follow up on previous meetings.

The employer will have access to a list of their preferred candidates.

MEETING SPACES

Representatives who wish to conduct individual meetings or interviews with candidates may book a meeting space (one per company, 45 minutes per meeting) next to the reception desk. Reservation of this space is free for companies.

Priority will be given to the event sponsors.

Each organisation may book multiple time slots, if no other organisations have booked or have expressed an interest.
